“PIGS”

Requirements : A pair of Dice a paper and pencil for keeping score.

This game is normally played for money ( Dollar bills are easy to handle ). It can be played without money, but how much fun is that? All players place a dollar in the Pot to begin play.

The object of the game is to score 100 points by rolling the dice. You roll the dice adding points as long as you don't roll an “Ace” (one dot) on a die. If you do, no points are added to your total and you pass the dice to the player on your left. You can stop rolling at anytime to protect yourself from rolling an “ace” and maintain any points earned.

If you roll “Snake-eyes” (two aces) you go back to zero on your score AND you place another dollar bill in the Pot.

Example of Play

1st roll..... I roll a 5 and a 3 for 8 points

2nd roll ..... I roll a 3 and a 2 for 5 points. I stop rolling to protect my points and pass the dice to the player on my left. My total score is 13 points

The play circles the table and returns to me

3rd roll .... I roll a 2 and a 2 for 4 points

4th roll .... I roll a 5 and an “ace”. I lose my turn, do not add any points to my total and pass the dice to my left My total score remains at 13.

The play circles the table and returns to me

5th roll .... I roll “Snake-eyes”. I lose my turn. I lose my total points and I place a dollar in the Pot (mildly cursing under my breath)

The person scoring 100 points first wins the money in the Pot.; however all players to the left of the winner get one more roll to beat the winners total and take the “Pot”
